

Chesco News is the Chester County employee newsletter that now appears weekly on the home page of the County's intranet (employee) website.

Chesco News

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2009

700 years (combined) with the County!

Last week, 28 Chester County employees were honored at a special ceremony in Historic Courtroom One, recognizing 25 years of service to the County. Employees represented many departments including Facilities Management, the DA's office and Bail Agency, Pocopson Home, the Prison, Department of Community Development, Adult Probation, CYF, Clerk of Courts, the Health Department, Planning Commission and Court Administration.

Pictured above (left) is Julie Nance, L.P.N. from Pocopson Home with Captain Pamela Saunders, a correctional officer at Chester County Prison.

Pictured left (from left to right) is Chester County Court Administrator Tricia Norwood-Foden with Court Administration staff Sara Moix, Melanie McAteer (one of the 25-year honorees) and Mary Jones.

Human Services presents annual V&V awards

On October 27th, all Chester County Human Services employees met to celebrate the 5th annual Vision & Values (V&V) award ceremony, recognizing and honoring staff who have earned the respect of their fellow co-workers for the service they provide. Pictured right are (left to right): Kim Moore, MH/MR; Crystal Robertson, Drug & Alcohol; Andrea Walker, Office of Aging; Ruth Kranz-Carl, Director of Human Services; Cindy Scott, CYF; Commissioner Terence Farrell; Commissioner Carol Aichele; Shawn Lewis, Youth Center; and Peg Barrett, Department of Human Services.

Pictured here (center) is V&V Rookie of the Year Ashley Gillispie from the Office of Aging, with Commissioner Terence Farrell (left) and Commissioner Carol Aichele (right).